PPC Candidate

DOING POLITICS
DIFFERENTLY

Authorized by the Official Agent of Ian Prittie

About Ian Prittie

- Ian grew up in a small-business-owning family in the west end of Toronto and began his career there. The family business manufactured products for the printing industry and employed 150 Ontarians at its peak.
- Achieving his professional engineering status in 1994 (P.Eng.), Ian initially helped his family's manufacturing business. He then pursued a career in the financial sector as an equity analyst after earning the chartered financial analyst (CFA) designation in 1998. In 2010 he earned his Project Management Professional (PMP) certification.
- Today, Ian owns a small business assisting clients in the financial sector to design and implement both business and technology projects.
- Ian is inspired by the Four Principles of the People's Party of Canada:
 - Personal Responsibility,
 - Individual Freedom,
 - Respect, and
 - Fairness.
- With his work ethic and desire to be a catalyst of fundamental change in Ottawa, Ian represents a fresh perspective and sensible departure from traditional parties.
- Ian agrees with Maxime that the time has come to do politics differently in Canada and he is proud to be an Elections Canada confirmed candidate for Don Valley West.
